when the angel speaks listen is an inspiring book that tells us god has not abandoned us he loves us god knows we sin and now is the time we as sinners need to know that we learn to love with a pure heart we learn to listen to the words of faith salvation and love we learn about the saints who hear our prayers the angels who guide us and many prayers that give us hope there are poems that inspire us quotes that tell of truth and narration that tells stories with divine words from the angel of the lord god nietzsche and darwin were rough contemporaries who shared an interest in the origins of moral behavior but whose views on the subject could not have been further apart where darwin saw selection in favor of the strong and the fit nietzsche saw the triumph of the will to power most of what nietzsche said about darwin was quite hostile however richardson argues that nietzsche was far more deeply influenced by darwin than he ever acknowledged furthermore he proposes that once the darwinian aspect of nietzsche's thinking is brought to the surface many of his philosophical positions turn out to be better grounded than we might have thought otherwise the heart of the book is richardson showing how particularly problematic nietzschean issues the will to power the subjective nature of moral and ethical values and the relationship between morality and aesthetics benefit from a new view of nietzsche s unspoken embrace of darwinian ideas and the natural sciences more generally the result is an important contribution to our understanding of this controversial thinker
