in this groundbreaking new book Jones shows how some of the major determining leaders in modern thought and culture have rationalized their own immoral behavior and projected it onto a universal canvas the main thesis of this book is that in the intellectual life there are only two ultimate alternatives either the thinker conforms desire to truth or he conforms truth to desire in the last one hundred years the western cultural elite embarked upon a project which entailed the reversal of the values of the intellectual life so that truth would be subjected to desire as the final criterion of intellectual value in looking at recent biographies of such major moderns as Freud Kinsey Keynes Margaret Mead Picasso and others there is a remarkable similarity between their lives and thought after becoming involved in sexual license early on they invariably chose an ideology or art form which subordinated reality to the exigencies of their sexual misbehavior einer der vielseitigsten Genueser Künstler des 17. Jahrhunderts ist Giovanni Benedetto Castiglione Genua 1609 1664 Mantua genannt Il Grechetto als Zeichner entwickelte er mit der Pinselzeichnung in Öl und mit der Monotypie neue graphische Ausdrucksformen die Eigenwilligkeit des Genuesen als Künstler gipfelte allerdings darin dass er sich mit der Kunst seines Zeitgenossen Rembrandt auseinandersetzte die These der Rembrandt-Rezeption bei Giovanni Benedetto Castiglione begründete am Ende des 17. Jahrhunderts der französische Kunsthistoriograph Florent Le Comte und seiner Erkenntnis war im kunsthistorischen Diskurs ein nachhaltiger Erfolg beschieden dennoch stand eine Detailuntersuchung aus das vorliegende Buch widmet sich nun erstmals speziell diesem Aspekt und analysiert in der Gegenüberstellung der Radierungen Rembrandts mit den davon beeinflussten Zeichnungen Monotypien Radierungen und Gemälden die konkrete Vorgehensweise des Rezipienten in der mehr als dreihundertjährigen These von der Rembrandt-Rezeption bei Giovanni Benedetto Castiglione schwankte das Urteil bezüglich des Einflusses von Rembrandt auf Castiglione zwischen Nachahmung und stimulierender Anregung die Studie versucht diesen unterschiedlichen Sichtweisen auf die Spur zu kommen und sieht in der Nachahmung des in 2008 the musée des beaux arts de lyon acquired a painting called the flight into egypt which was attributed to the french artist nicolas poussin thought to have been painted in 1657 the painting had gone missing for more than three centuries several versions were rediscovered in the 1980s and one was passed from hand to hand from a family who had no idea of its value to gallery owners and eventually to the museum a painting that had been sold as a decorative object in 1986 for around 12 000 euros was acquired two decades later by the musée des beaux arts de lyon for 17 million euros what does this remarkable story tell us about the nature of art and the way that it is valued how is it that what seemed to be just an ordinary canvas could be transformed into a masterpiece that a decorative object could become a national treasure this is a story permeated by social magic the social alchemy that transforms lead into gold the ordinary into the extraordinary the profane into the sacred focusing on this extraordinary case bernard lahire lays bare the beliefs and social processes that underpin the creation of a masterpiece like a detective piecing together the clues in an unsolved mystery he carefully reconstructs the steps that led from the same material object being treated as a copy of insignificant value to being endowed with the status of a highly prized painting commanding a record breaking price he thereby shows that a painting is never just a painting and is always more than a piece of stretched canvass to which brush strokes of paint have been applied this object and the value we attach to it is also the product of a complex array of social processes with its distinctive institutions and experts that lies behind it and through the history of this painting lahire uncovers some of the fundamental structures of our social world for the social magic that can transform a painting from a simple copy into a masterpiece is similar to the social magic that is present throughout our societies in economics and politics as much as art and religion a magic that results from the spell cast by power on those who tacitly recognize its authority by following the trail of a single work of art lahire interrogates the foundations on which our perceptions of value and our belief in institutions rest and exposes the forms of domination which lie hidden behind our admiration of works of art

the work of the great french painter nicolas poussin 1594-1665 is most often associated with classically inspired settings and figures depicting solemn scenes from mythology or the bible yet he also created some of the most influential landscapes in western art endowing them with a poetic quality that has been admired by artists as different as Constable, Turner, and Cézanne. As the British critic William Hazlitt noted in 1844, this great and learned man might be said to see nature through the glass of time. This beautiful catalogue presents the first in-depth examination of Poussin's landscapes. Featured here are more than 40 paintings ranging from the artist's early Venetian-inspired pastorals to his grandly structured and austere works designed as metaphors or allegories for the processes of nature. Also included are approximately 60 drawings and essays by internationally renowned scholars who examine the painter's visual, literary, and philosophical influences as well as his relationships with his patrons and his place in the art historical canon. Publisher description

The works have been selected by Pierre Rosenberg, director of the Louvre, who contributes a distinguished essay to this catalogue, and by Neil Macgregor, director of the National Gallery in London.

Through previously unpublished documents, this volume revisits the public furore 40 years ago when the British Academy chose not to expel from its fellowship the eminent art historian Anthony Blunt, who had been exposed as a former Soviet spy. David Cannadine portrays the main characters in this episode which rocked the academic establishment.
