Sometimes life's greatest accomplishments take place off the field. There's nothing all-star pitcher Peter Friedman loves more than baseball. He breathes it, dreams it, and works his tail off to be great. Most kids are nervous about starting high school, but when you're the star athlete, girls' popularity, and all-around stud status are sure to follow. Then a pitching accident over the summer ruins Pete's arm. If he can't play baseball in high school, what is he supposed to do if he isn't the star pitcher? Then who is he to make matters more complicated, there's something going on with Pete's grampa. He's acting weird and keeps forgetting important things. The only person Pete can confide in is Angelika, the amazingly cute girl in his photography class who might like Pete as much as he likes her. Only Angie doesn't know if she can date someone who can't be honest with himself or with the people he's closest to.
