in his last years otto rank turned his lifetime of thought and learning toward two of the most difficult topics in human history religion and the soul the result was this now classic work available in this new very accessible english translation unlike many other intellectuals of the twentieth century rank maintains a place for the soul rather than dismissing it as a fantasy the soul and the beliefs about it he argues set forth the foundation for psychology with its complex analyses of consciousness self consciousness and personality rank s commentary is not limited to beliefs about individual souls but includes ideas about group souls sometimes encompassing nations or generations rank suggests that it is in expression of group beliefs that the idea of the soul attains its greatest power the commentary of st thomas aquinas on aristotle s treatise on the soul tanslated by r a kocourek human and the effect of his soul man and the effect of his soul andreas wolf von guggenberger creates a fascinating model of creation soul spirit and body in his new work with it he deepens his work evolution of creation and the soul as a short introduction he presents his idea of a possible origin of creation and at the same time describes how the souls could have arisen in it he then describes the inner levels of the human being from the dynamics between the souls and the creation he outlines the model of the spirit spiralling upwards viewed from ever new angles he describes the following levels of the soul spiritual levels of perception higher self evolutionary level personality me and ego mask defensive and protective attitudes of the egos and the transformation of me and ego this is followed by the physical and mental drive systems with an expanded body model he shows how self forgiveness can help to dissolve feelings of guilt fear inferiority and power psychoanalytical brain neurological evolutionary and religious approaches merge naturally from the perspective of the soul he elaborates completely new perspectives and connections the author breaks away from conventional models of thought and creates something fascinatingly new he has taken the basic ideas of his book from his main work evolution of creation and the soul in his main work he describes the background very extensively and in detail his two books are very personal works they are the result of personal introspection research and a journey of knowledge therefore the author did not initially think of publishing them in his works he relies on his own inner visions which is why his concepts differ from those of other psychologists philosophers and religious thinkers a souls whisper is a beautifully composed book that provides you the opportunity to experience personal transformation and growth by connecting with your higher self journey with the author as he guides you along a path of self realization that shows you how to establish a foundation that will help you to relate with the world in a more peaceful and loving way the information shared within this book will increase your self awareness to the point that you will see yourself in a new light and become greater aware of who and what you are at your core as you gain a better understanding of the nature of your mind you will then be able to embrace the authentic power within you to create new experiences the interdependency of life will allow these new experiences to take shape and create a lasting impression upon not only your life but also the life of those around you so go ahead and give the universe the gifts that your soul wants to give awaken who you are connect with your higher self and embrace the love that is a souls whisper this catechism is divided into three parts the first part treats of faith the second of morals the third of the means of grace in the first part our lord appears in his character of teacher in the second in his character of king and in the third in his character of high priest and since this catechism proposes as its primary object to answer the question for what purpose are we here upon earth thereby emphasizing and giving prominence to man's high calling and destiny it is especially suited to the present day when the pursuit of material interests self indulgence and pleasure engrosses the attention of so many this catechism is in fact nothing more nor less than an abstract of our lord's teaching and may be called a guide book for the christian on the road to heaven preface do we all possess a soul if so what is it can it be defined crawford argues that it is important that we have a soul because if it is immortal then we can hope for life after death but some religions insist that it is the resurrection of the body which is vital how can the belief in an immortal soul and resurrection of the body be reconciled crawford attempts to answer this question in the context of six world religions and the science and technology of twenty first century society
