Excerpt from the Origin and History of the First or Grenadier Guards, Vol. 1 of 3, from documents in the State Paper Office, War Office, Horse Guards, Contemporary History, Regimental Records, etc. A circular was issued by the General Commanding in Chief on the 29th of August 1830, directing by command of the King that the historical records of all regiments should be forthwith prepared for publication, and there shortly appeared in rapid succession a series of records of many regiments of the line, both cavalry and infantry, as well as of the Household Cavalry, compiled by authority in the Adjutant General's Office. But the records so prepared did not include those of the Brigade of Guards. Colonel Mackinnon of the Coldstreams therefore wrote and published in the year 1833 the Origin and History of his Regiment, but no officer at that time undertook to compile the history of the Grenadier Guards. I had then but recently joined the regiment, and from the year 1836 to 1846 was too continuously employed in the active duties of Adjutant of one of its battalions to undertake the literary researches that would be necessary to do justice to such a subject.
