each day brings to each person what is significant for him today at every moment as gabriele explains at every moment the sensations and thoughts that concern a person s spiritual and physical situation flash through his mind they want to either warn him or show him new ways or guide him correctly in a situation this book opens our eyes showing us how we can set the course for our future at every moment modern philosophical thought has a manifold tradition of emphasising the moment the moment demands questioning all too common notions of time of past present and future uniqueness and repetition rupture and continuity this collection addresses the key questions posed by the moment considering writers such as nietzsche husserl benjamin and badiou and elucidates the connections between social theory philosophy literary theory and history that are opened up by this notion the book discusses the art of living in the moment and living in the breath it has five parts part one discusses the hierarchy of mindfulness factors of mindfulness micro mindfulness frameworks of mindfulness goal setting and planning with mindfulness and many other aspects of mindfulness part two three and four discusses different practices of mindfulness meditation written in clear and concise language and beautifully illustrated the book is enjoyable to read and easy to practice in this book dr ray explores mindfulness as an art of living in the moment and living in the breath he explores mindfulness as the source of inspiration and inner peace ray explains how to apply mindfulness to everything we encounter so we can transcend unconscious habits that have imprisoned us for so long he shows the ways to transform our fear expectation anger regret cravings frustration and fatigue into positive energy of love and compassion a provocative new look at concepts of the present their connection to ideas about time and their effect on literature art and culture the problem of the present what it is and what it means is one that has vexed generations of thinkers and artists because modernity places so much value on the present many critics argue that people today spend far too much time in the here and now but how can we tell without first knowing what the here and now actually is what is the present takes a provocative new look at this moment in time that remains a mystery even though it is always with us michael north tackles puzzles that have preoccupied philosophy neuroscience psychology history and aesthetic theory and examines the complex role of the present in painting fiction and film he engages with a range of thinkers from aristotle and augustine to william james and henri bergson he draws illuminating examples from artists such as fra angelico and richard mcguire filmmakers like d w griffith and christopher nolan and novelists such as elizabeth bowen and willa cather north offers a critical analysis of previous models of the present from the experiential present to the historical period we call the contemporary he argues that the present is not a cosmological or experiential fact but a metaphor a figurative relationship with the whole of time presenting an entirely new conception of the temporal mystery georg lukács called the unexplained instant what is the present explores how the arts have traditionally represented the present and also how artists have offered radical alternatives to that tradition
