in this his premiere work cornel west provides readers with a new understanding of the african american experience based largely on his own political and cultural perspectives borne out of his own life s experiences he challenges african americans to consider the incorporation of marxism into their theological perspectives thereby adopting the mindset that it is class more so than race that renders one powerless in america armed with a new introduction by the author this twentieth anniversary edition of prophesy deliverance is a must have in the early 1880s proponents of what came to be called the social gospel founded what is now known as social ethics this ambitious and magisterial book describes the tradition of social ethics one that began with the distinctly modern idea that christianity has a social ethical mission to transform the structures of society in the direction of social justice charts the story of social ethics the idea that christianity has a social ethical mission to transform society from its roots in the nineteenth century through to the present day discusses and analyzes how different traditions of social ethics evolved in the realms of the academy church and general public looks at the wide variety of individuals who have been prominent exponents of social ethics from academics and self styled public intellectuals through to pastors and activists set to become the definitive reference guide to the history and development of social ethics recipient of a choice outstanding academic title for 2009 award uniformly excellent essays on the work of the renowned author and his extraordinary relevance in the present moment choice in seminal works such as go tell it on the mountain notes of a native son and the fire next time acclaimed author and social critic james baldwin expresses his profound belief that writers have the power to transform society engage the public and inspire and channel conversation to achieve lasting change while baldwin is best known for his writings on racial consciousness and injustice he is also one of the country s most eloquent theorists of democratic life and the national psyche in this book prominent scholars assess the prolific author s relevance to present day political challenges together they address baldwin as a democratic theorist activist and citizen examining his writings on the civil rights movement religion homosexuality and women s rights they investigate the ways in which his work speaks to and galvanizes a collective american polity and explore his views on the political implications of individual experience in relation to race and gender this volume not only considers baldwin s works within their own historical context but also applies the author s insights to recent events such as the obama presidency and the black lives matter movement emphasizing his faith in the connections between the past and present these incisive essays will encourage a new reading of baldwin that celebrates his significant contributions to political and democratic theory

2011 winner of the book awards contest in the discipline of theology presented by alpha sigma nu the apostle paul wrote that all of you are one in christ jesus given paul s vision of god s kingdom defined by the breakdown of all distinctions and relationships of domination no longer jew or greek slave or free male or female how do we make sense of ethnic particularity within the church s theological formulations racism and god talk explores the biblical and religious dimensions of north american racism while highlighting examples of resistance within the christian religious tradition social historians have seldom analyzed the problematic of race from a primarily theological perspective this volume undertakes a critical examination of explicitly theological and confessional perspectives for understanding and transforming north american racism rosario rodriguez offers insights from latino a theology for broader scholarly and social discussions concerning racism borders and immigration the first to analyze race and racism from a latino a theological perspective the volume makes use of a broadened conceptualization of mestizaje or mutual cultural exchange to challenge the church to recognize the effects of racial and ethnic particularity in all theological construction this book recognizes that the postmodern new historicism leads to a value neutral relativism and leaves theology with an impossible choice dean argues that the postmodern challenge is incoherent and ineffective unless it is reinterpreted in terms of its classical american roots before offering a third option dean defends the neopragmatism of richard rorty richard bernstein nelson goodman hilary putnam cornel west and jeffrey stout the deconstructivism of jacques derrida and mark taylor and the recent theology of gordon kaufman the third option opening up a new possibility for american theology is the radical empiricism of william james and john dewey and the precedent of the chicago school he follows the twists and turns of this story from niebuhr's christian realist positions of the 1940s through protestant participation in the complex social movements of the 1950s and 1960s to the emergence of various liberation theologies african american feminist latin american and others that used c c as a central arena of debate in the 1970s and 1980s the issues of violence and its control containment or overcoming range prominently in the social sciences empirical sociology seeks to derive generalizable explanations from its research into concrete cases of the occurrence or absence of violent conflict aspiring to transform such explanations into instructions for strategic action within cultural studies discursive and epistemic formations are assumed to be fundamentally and endemically violent in these perspectives the quotidian violence that ineluctably inheres in modern discourses manifests itself as e g normalisation privilege and exclusion thus sharing a wide range of common objects and objectives with the social sciences the essays collected in this volume address contemporary conjunctures and discourses of violence in world society from different disciplines ranging from cultural studies social science political science and philosophy to history literary criticism and psychology
