how were holidays chosen and taught in biblical israel and what did they have to do with the creation narrative michael lefebvre considers the calendars of the pentateuch arguing that dates were added to old testament narratives not as journalistic details but to teach sacred rhythms of labor and worship lefebvre then applies this insight to the creation week finding that the days of creation also serve a liturgical purpose in the beginning god created thus begins the bible s story of a long conversation between god and creatures one in which humans are often the least edifying contributors they need to learn what it means to confess themselves creatures if they are to begin to understand what it means to be human and how to live joining creation s praise a major statement by a leading christian ethicist shows how confessing that we are creatures deeply reshapes every aspect of christian thinking and living human beings are made to
