radical aesthetics and modern black nationalism explores the long overlooked links between black nationalist activism and the renaissance of artistic experimentation emerging from recent african american literature visual art and film gershun avilez charts a new genealogy of contemporary african american artistic production that illuminates how questions of gender and sexuality guided artistic experimentation in the black arts movement from the mid 1960s to the mid 1970s as Avilez shows the artistic production of the Black Arts Era provides a set of critical methodologies and paradigms rooted in the disidentification with Black nationalist discourses. Avilez's close readings study how this emerging subjectivity termed aesthetic radicalism critiqued nationalist rhetoric in the past; it also continues to offer novel means for expressing Black intimacy and embodiment via experimental works of art and innovative artistic methods. A bold addition to an advancing field, radical aesthetics and modern Black nationalism rewrites recent Black cultural production even as it uncovers unexpected ways of locating Black radicalism.

Contemporary Issues in Art Education by Yvonne Gaudelius and Peg Speirs is a collection of essays that are framed around social issues in art and teaching. Using an issues-based approach, the authors provide a valuable resource for teaching issues-based content, especially as these issues are explored through contemporary art and visual culture in the classroom. The authors present ideas for educators at all levels who want to incorporate an issues-based approach to teaching. This book combines theoretical perspectives with tangible and practical strategies for generating content and pedagogical approaches. The book, while primarily written for pre-service elementary teachers, will prove useful to general classroom teachers and art educators at all levels. Whether they are teaching in the K-12 or the college classroom, the authors in this book are highly respected within the field of art education. They provide thoughtful approaches to a realm of complex ideas encompassing artistic, social, political, and educational issues. Readers will develop and understanding of a variety of ways to teach about such issues in the classroom, how to draw upon the contemporary artworld, and a sense of the critical frameworks within which we need to explore such issues.
