lord vishnu and the creation the vishnu purana is part of a series of eighteen sacred hindu texts known collectively as the puranas it occupies a prominent position among the ancient vaishnava puranas which recount tales of creation and the many incarnations of lord vishnu it describes the four classes of society the four stages of life and key astronomical concepts related to hinduism brimming with insight and told with clarity this translation of the vishnu purana by bibek debroy presents readers with an opportunity to truly understand the classical indian mythic texts debroy has previously translated the bhagavata purana the markandeya purana and the brahma purana

this book is an unconventional articulation of the political thinking in india in a refreshingly creative manner in more than one way empirically the book becomes innovative by providing an analytically more grasping contextual interpretation of indian political thought that evolved during the nationalist struggle against colonialism insightfully it attempts to unearth the hitherto unexplored yet vital subaltern strands of political thinking in india as manifested through the mode of numerous significant socio economic movements operating side by side and sometimes as part of the mainstream nationalist movement this book articulates the main currents of indian political thought by locating the text and themes of the thinkers within the socio economic and politico cultural contexts in which such ideas were conceptualised and articulated the book also tries to analytically grasp the influences of the various british constitutional devices that appeared as the responses of the colonial government to redress the genuine socio economic grievances of the various sections of indian society the book breaks new ground in not only articulating the main currents of indian political thought in an analytically more sound approach of context driven discussion but also provokes new research in the field by charting a new course in grasping and articulating the political thought in india this volume will be useful to the students researchers and faculty working in the fields of political science political sociology political economy and post colonial contemporary indian politics in particular it will also be an invaluable and interesting reading for those interested in south asian studies the purpose of this essay submitted to the faculty of calvin theological seminary in candidacy for the degree of master of theology may 2011 is to demonstrate that cornelius van til s 1895 1987 presupposition of reformed dogmatics is largely a presupposition of herman bavinck s 1854 1921 gereformeerde dogmatiek the argument proceeds in three steps first by situating van til s life and work in the neo calvinist intellectual milieu within which he operated throughout his career the prevailing copernican interpretation of van til s thought is challenged on the grounds of historical abstraction second his formal material and polemical appropriations of bavinck s dogmatiek are analyzed in order to show not only that van til appropriates bavinck s thought pervasively but also that his apologetics cannot be properly understood apart from bavinck s dogmatics third van til s criticisms of the alleged scholasticism in bavinck s thought are analyzed in terms of their originality and their validity regarding the former it is argued that van til tacitly appropriates herman dooyeweerd s 1894 1977 earlier criticisms of neo calvinist scholasticism regarding the latter it is argued that van til s criticisms are methodologically unsound and historically untenable insofar as they proceed upon subjective premises and lead to a subjective conclusion in sum given both his pervasive appropriation of bavinck s dogmatiek and his entrenchment in neo calvinist theology and philosophy van til is more accurately interpreted as a neo calvinist rather than a copernican revolutionary
