at peace with uncertainty we want certainty but life is uncertain we don't know what is going to happen in the next moment and we struggle to attain certainty in an uncertain world it never happens in fact it is against the very nature of things life is in constant flux and our entire time goes to waste trying to bring certainty into our lives in our relationships money status or anything for that matter we have to understand deeply that only two things are certain in life they are uncertainty and death the rest is always in flux to know to accept this will lead us to peace and bliss otherwise uncertainty leads to anxiety pain and frustration but it is easier said than done intellectually we might understand it but existentially when we face uncertainty in our day today life we panic we have just understood this fact of life very superficially it has not sunk inside when it comes to testing it in life situations we fail uncertainty is always there but now this corona virus has surfaced on the face of the earth and humanity resulting in major panic anxiety frustration and in some cases drastic measures like suicide to make peace with this uncertainty in life we will have to dig deeper into our interiority to understand how this human mechanism functions unless and until the blueprint is clear we will remain unsettled my endeavour through this book is to give you a small glimpse of how this human mechanism is designed so you may get a taste of it and then you can explore it further friends this book uncertainty of life have taken birth because of my background i had not been able to cope with the uncertainties i faced in the early part of my life resulting in constant anxiety frustration and pain this corona virus pandemic and lockdowns across the world have left human beings to face uncertainty in their lives like never before it has led people into mental disorders and so the timing of this book is very relevant it covers how to come to terms with uncertainty in life and provides a basic framework of the human mechanism to get through it i am very hopeful that this will trigger you to dig deep into your interior and find bliss in your life i wish you all the best
