of god and how we relate to and praise him while we may find ourselves familiar with the fact that god loves us we may not necessarily have a clear understanding of what his love is like drawing from scripture alone the gift is designed to clarify what god is love means specifically what does god s love look like how is god s love expressed to us why does god love us the goal of this self guided bible study is to better understand god s love so as to encourage us in christ and to inspire in us a growing amazement of the grace of god so that we would praise and worship him more now than ever before poets theologians romantics scientists and revolutionaries alike have explored the many facets of love judging by the wide use of the word "love" and the high praise it typically receives we might think that philosophers have thoroughly analyzed love but this is not the case this book takes a step toward rectifying the neglect of a philosophical analysis of love it brings together fifteen philosophical perspectives that explore some of love s most important facets most of the essays have theistic or religious concerns in mind this catechism is divided into three parts the first part treats of faith the second of morals the third of the means of grace in the first part our lord appears in his character of teacher in the second in his character of king and in the third in his character of high priest and since this catechism proposes as its primary object to answer the question for what purpose are we here upon earth thereby emphasizing and giving prominence to man's high calling and destiny it is especially suited to the present day when the pursuit of material interests self-indulgence and pleasure engrosses the attention of so many this catechism is in fact nothing more nor less than an abstract of our Lord's teaching and may be called a guide book for the Christian on the road to heaven preface
