focusing on highly topical issues such as torture arbitrary detention privacy and discrimination this book will help readers to understand for themselves the controversies and complexities behind human rights

this volume explores the place of human rights in history providing an alternative framework for understanding the political and legal dilemmas that these conflicts presented with case studies focusing on the 1940s through the present this textbook provides a thorough and systematic overview of human rights law including the most relevant practice and case law but also dealing with theoretical issues it pursues an original approach seeking to reconcile its didactic purpose with a scientific one positing that there must be a necessary synergy between these two purposes furthermore the author is convinced that international human rights law should not be studied as is done in virtually every textbook as a special legal regime separate and autonomous from the overall system of international law but as a regime that is fully integrated into the international legal order the book s dominant theme is the interrelationship of international human rights law and general international law following this approach the author has chosen to devote comparatively little content to institutional issues part iv and to instead more intensively explore the structural impact of human rights law on the entire international order part i on the sources part ii and obligations part iii of general international law and what constitutes fundamental human rights part v without neglecting other rights part vi a handbook listing books periodicals directories non print materials and other information sources on human rights intended for researchers students and

this third edition of human rights between idealism and realism presents human rights in action focusing on their effectiveness as legal tools designed to benefit human beings by combining conceptual analysis with an emphasis on procedures and mechanisms of implementation this volume provides a multidimensional overview of human rights after examining briefly the history of human rights the author analyses the intellectual framework that forms the basis of their legitimacy in particular he covers the concept of universality and the widely used model that classifies human rights into clusters of different generations in this edition the author brings together the fundamental aspects of human rights law addressing human dignity as the ethical foundation of human rights the principle of equality and non discrimination as the essence of any culture of human rights the protections against racial discrimination and discrimination against women and assesses the individual as a subject of international law the volume then moves on to assess the activities of the political institutions of the united nations the expert bodies established by the relevant treaties and the international tribunals specifically entrusted at the regional level with protecting human rights this edition also includes specific analysis of the actions mandated by the un security council against libya in 2011 it also includes greater coverage of the jurisprudence of the inter american court of human rights and the african commission on human and peoples rights the author explains how and why the classical array of politically inspired informal devices has been enriched by the addition of international criminal procedures and by endeavours to introduce civil suits against alleged individual violators of human rights finally the volume is rounded off by a consideration of the importance of humanitarian law as an instrument for the protection of human life and dignity and an exploration of the future of human rights
