This anthology deals with changes in values, norms, and attitudes in our society which is increasingly characterized by cultural diversity. Embedded in the current debate about a post-migrant society, the contributions present findings that have emerged within the framework of various research projects of the BMBF funding line Migration and Social Change. They deal with differences and similarities regarding the values and norms of people with and without a migratory background, the connections between values and integration mechanisms, and many more. The contributions focus on values and norms concerning family, gender relations, education, and religion. The English translation of this book, originally in German, was facilitated by Artificial Intelligence. The content was later revised by the authors for accuracy.
