community holding to social political economic interests which have special significance and poignancy for them holden's perception of the nature of the times in the early seventies stands in sharp contrast to how contemporary analysts of african american politics tend to perceive the nature of african americans role in political life and their position in american society in the present age in this retrospective readers have the opportunity to get a sense of what holden argued of the seven essays that make up his seminal volume and to consider how well holden's observations have stood the tests of time in addition to the essays presented at the symposium which pointedly discuss holden's work there are essays dealing with african american politics in constancy and change by contributors including charles henry david covin robert c smith clyde lusane cheryl miller d linell finley and sekou franklin among others other features are a highly informative discussion of the literary digest magazine's straw vote presidential polls 1916 1936 and a review essay by peter ronaye in which he discusses america as new world power u s foreign policy in the post cold war era the volume concludes with fifteen book reviews by knowledgeable scholars the politics of the black nation is a timely thought provoking volume it will be of immense value to ethnic studies specialists african american studies scholars political scientists historians and sociologists georgia a persons is professor in the school of public policy at the georgia institute of technology and the current editor of the national political science review
