unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 we have not used ocr optical character recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 in books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc we have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy this little book came into existence as if it were by chance the author had devoted himself for a long time to the study of beethoven and carefully scrutinized all manner of books publications manuscripts etc in order to derive the greatest possible information about the hero he can say confidently that he conned every existing publication of value his notes made during his readings grew voluminous and also his amazement at the wealth of beethoven s observations comparatively unknown to his admirers because hidden away like concealed violets in books which have been long out of print and for whose reproduction there is no urgent call these observations are of the utmost importance for the understanding of beethoven in whom man and artist are inseparably united edited by friedrich kerst and henry edward krehbiel
