as a christian one of the most enjoyable things is walking with christ daily one of the best ways to walk with christ is through a daily devotion however sometimes the scriptures aren't black and white it is my prayer that through this easy to read book you will be able to understand a little more about christ and the example that he has set for us for those of you who like to read and go further in your walk with christ but aren't really ready to set down and read a 1000 page novel this book may be for you as a youth pastor the majority of my time is spent with youth groups and others like me so i try to keep my lessons and ideas short this book is laid out in such a way that the chapters are short enough to cover a chapter a day i like to think that i have a decent sense of humor which usually means most of my jokes are corny so maybe you can get a chuckle or two out of it as well i've also tried to organize each chapter in such a way that they could be used as devotional lessons to use with a youth group when you need a five minute lesson during a pizza party so with the promises of a daily devotion short chapters a little humor why wouldn't you love this book but seriously i pray that this book will bless you as much as writing it has blessed me so let's jump right into our journey through matthew
