Management Foundations and Applications 1st Asia Pacific edition is a more concise version of the popular text Management 4th Asia Pacific edition, which is also published by Wiley. The 15 chapters of this edition cover key topics typically taught in a 12 or 13 week teaching semester. Joining the AutoHR team and enhancing this edition's critical analysis of management theory and applications are the best-selling authors from another of the Wiley's undergraduate introductory management texts, Management: Core Concepts and Applications 2nd Australasian edition. Davidson et al. This text has a strong emphasis on the importance of the Asian region to contemporary Australian and New Zealand organizations, both during the crisis and in its aftermath. Course Management Foundations and Applications 1st Asia Pacific edition also retains the features that make its larger parent text so popular with students and lecturers: a balanced coverage of small to medium-sized enterprises and larger multinational corporations; an emphasis on the need for business activities to be sustainable in the terms of preserving the welfare of future generations; the Career Readiness Workbook at the end of the book, which includes a range of individual and group activities to encourage the practical application of management theory; with its clear insights into the dynamics of management in the workplace of today and future. Management Foundations and Applications 1st Asia Pacific edition provides a sound basis for the contemporary undergraduate study of introductory management.

Decision making and effective management foundations for developing business. The decision making process may seem to some to be a simple matter that can be resolved in a few minutes, but the truth shows that this matter is fraught with difficulty and complications, especially if this decision is related to the fate of organizations, business institutions, and companies. Decision making is not an abstract process but a process that includes many effects of related variables among the controls, determinants, and choices of alternatives. In order to resolve matters, we find that there is what is called the most appropriate alternative and there is the optimal alternative, and each of them has a price and cost. Also, the decision making process must consider the situation of the decision maker, his accumulated experience, and other supporting factors, and also considers the interaction of the recipient of the decision and the decision making process. Also, should consider the effects of the external and internal environment of organizations, and also the effects of the interfering environment between them. We must differentiate between the concept of decision making and the concept of decision taking. The decision making process is a process that passes through several stages, starting with identifying the topic or problem and taking note of all the details, then moving to the analysis stage, followed by the evaluation stage for this topic or problem, and then collecting information in order to decide by first proposing appropriate solutions and working on evaluating them so that in the end the best one can be chosen among them the decision taking process refers to the conclusion reached by the decision maker makers after completing the collection of information and ideas about the topic or problem under discussion and finding several alternatives and solutions as for the decision taking process it is the process in which the choice of the most appropriate solution or the best out of a set of choices is in the form of a decision made by a person or persons allowed to do so today we need distinguished people who create events formulate sustainable strategies set goals that can be achieved and manage difficult situations with their advanced tools and all of this will only come by changing our view of things and going out of the crucible of indoctrination to the spaciousness of innovation
