have you ever wondered if you really mattered in this world what your purpose was or what you lived for as you lie down to sleep at night do you ever wish you could erase the day and have a do over or said something you deeply regretted wishing you could delete the whole conversation like it never happened and begin again have you found a comfortable balance between giving and receiving between guilt and genuine compassion have you been in a room full of surface only conversations and just wanted to excuse yourself because that way of communicating doesn t work for you anymore and have there been times when you felt a deep void and didn t know how to fill it or where it even was if you have welcome you are not alone the answers to these questions and more are found in the book you now hold in your hand i have always believed there are no coincidences and our choices as in picking up this book could be calling us to open ourselves to new and positive ways of approaching challenges and lessons as we move forward in our lives the birth of a jewel is a series of stories that have brought wisdom and inspiration front and center for me from the life lessons i have gained through my experiences walking on this earth some of the stories may have you laughing some may stop you in your tracks and the tears will flow and then others may leave you pondering about your own journey and the lessons you can share with others we are a people of watchers so therefore we are teachers by the way we live our lives thought to ponder what do you live for and what purpose do you carry that moves you to make a difference

the case for an eco emancipatory politics to release the earth from human domination and free us all from lives that are both exploitative and exploited human domination of nature shapes every aspect of our lives today even as it remains virtually invisible to us because human beings are a part of nature the human domination of nature circles back to confine and exploit people as well and not only the poor and marginalized but also the privileged and affluent even in the world s most prosperous societies although modern democracy establishes constraints intended to protect people from domination as the arbitrary exercise of power it offers few such protections for nonhuman parts of nature the result is that wherever we fall in human hierarchies we inevitably find ourselves both complicit in and entrapped by a system that makes sustainable living all but impossible it confines and exploits not only nature but people too albeit in different ways in eco emancipation sharon krause argues that we can find our way to a better freer life by constraining the use of human power in relation to nature and promoting nature s well being alongside our own thereby releasing the earth from human domination and freeing us from a way of life that is both exploitative and exploited complicit and entrapped eco emancipation calls for new more than human political communities that incorporate nonhuman parts of nature through institutions of representation and regimes of rights combining these new institutional arrangements with political activism a public ethos of respect for nature and a culture of eco responsibility
