this exciting collection of essays challenges existing interpretations of several key moments of nietzsche s philosophy paul patton scientia professor of philosophy university of new south wales australia throughout his writing career nietzsche advocated the affirmation of earthly life as a way to counteract nihilism and asceticism this volume takes stock of the complexities and wide ranging perspectives that nietzsche brings to bear on the problem of life becoming on earth by engaging various interpretative paradigms reaching from existentialist to darwinist readings of nietzsche in an age in which the biological sciences claim to have unlocked the deepest secrets and codes of life the essays in this volume propose a more skeptical view life is both what is closest and what is furthest from us because life experiments through us as much as we experiment with it because life keeps our thinking and our habits always moving in a state of recurring nomadism nietzsche s philosophy is perhaps the clearest expression of the antinomy contained in the idea of studying life and in the socratic ideal of an examined life and remains a deep source of wisdom about living in this final volume of the collected writings of friedrich nietzsche the persona and condition of humanity is closely examined going through history and ethics nietzsche tries to pull together a coherent history and finalized in the collected of thoughts out of season he finalizes the philosophical thinking that has made nietzsche such a profound thinker in our history this book is the first comprehensive interpretation of nietzsche s untimely meditations it argues that the four meditations which nietzsche said deserve the greatest attention for my development are not separate pieces but instead form a unified philosophic narrative that constitutes his first attempt to diagnose and cure the spiritual ailments whose causes he traced to modern culture and science taking nietzsche s commentary on the four essays in his autobiographical work ecce homo as its interpretive guide this book also shows that the untimely meditations contain early expositions of concepts like the last man the overman the new philosopher the creation of values and the malleability of nature all staples of his later philosophy vol 1 includes the proceedings of the meeting for organization held dec 17 1898
