clinton heylin s first companion volume to bob dylan s songs was revolution in air the songs of bob dylan 1957 1973 this second volume still on the road is a continuation of that companion to every song that bob dylan ever wrote and is one of the most comprehensive books on the words of one of america s greatest songwriters here you ll find not just opinionated commentary or literary interpretation but facts clinton heylin has arranged the songs including a number that have never been performed in the chronology of when they were actually written rather than when they appeared on albums using newly discovered manuscripts anecdotal evidence and a seemingly limitless knowledge of every bob dylan live performance heylin has uncovered a wealth of information about these songs and bob dylan education and its discontents teaching the humanities and the importance of a liberal education in the age of mass information by mark moss is an exploration of how the traditional educational environment particularly in the post secondary world is changing as a consequence of the influx of new technology students come to the classroom or lecture hall expecting to have their habits and tastes gleaned from the online world replicated in an educational environment faculty who do not adapt face enormous obstacles and faculty that do adapt run the risk of eroding the integrity of what they have been trained to teach students now have access to myriad of technologies that instead of supplementing the educational process have actually taken it over issues that run from plagiarism to the erosion of the humanities are now rampant concerns in the post secondary world behavior issues youtube videos cell phones and the incessant clicking of the computer keys are just a few of the technologies altering the educational landscape moss discusses that it is now not only how we learn but what we continue to teach and how that enormously important legacy is protected education and its discontents teaching the humanities and the importance of a liberal education in the age of mass information by mark moss argues that education has changed and the supremacy of the book and the lecture is now open for debate what has been gained over the last five hundred years is now susceptible to the vagaries of technology which compel us to question their continuing relevance
