own statements that a mystical vision animated them all de Lubac's mystical theology hinges upon a vision of salvation understood as humanity's incorporation into the triune God through the cross and resurrection of the incarnate Christ from his writings on the supernatural and theological epistemology to his treatments of the spiritual interpretation of scripture ecclesiology sacramental theology and the theology of history the mystery of the cross looms large gathering these disparate topics into one focal center while also allowing their distinct contours to remain by attending to de Lubac's work in this light Eugene R. Schlesinger brings important themes from French language scholarship into the English speaking conversation and clarifies the nature of de Lubac's ressourcement Schlesinger claims that unless we understand de Lubac and his work in light of his own motivations and emphases we risk distorting his contribution reducing him to a proxy in the struggle for post conciliar Catholic self definition the necessity for inculturation in theology today cannot be overstressed it is absolutely necessary if the church is to be in the position to offer to all peoples the mystery of salvation and the fullness of life brought by God in Christ inculturation demands that the revelation takes root in the culture in order to become part and parcel of the people's life pattern and to be in turn enriched by the cultural values of the people although the fullness of revelation took place in time space and culture it is not exclusively tied up to any particular culture race or time revelation cuts across all boundaries and it is open to receive all and be received by all cultures as the life of the church is seen in the liturgy the tasks facing liturgy today are quite enormous liturgy must seek authentic means of creating a worshipping community through the celebration of the mysteries of christ the eucharist the sacraments liturgy of the hours and sacramentals as a holy people of god the faithful are entitled to a liturgy that is at their disposition they need to understand what they celebrate and participate actively in it they require as a matter of necessity a liturgy that transforms the inner realities of their being and the entire humanity the process of achieving this great goal constitutes the main bulk of this work in effect this book contains a representation of some cultural reactions to and enrichment of the reformed liturgy of the second vatican council en route in africa
