this report is one of a series of reviews commissioned by the chancellor of the exchequer to accompany the pre budget report 2006 to be published 6 december 2006 cm 6984 isbn 0101698429 it sets out recommendations to reform the planning system in england in support of sustainable economic growth and prosperity whilst securing delivery of wider objectives including promoting community involvement supporting local democracy and enhancing the environment key issues identified include the need to ensure the planning system is more responsive to the market whilst delivering sustainable development to ensure the appropriate use of land and to better manage the growing demand for development land to streamline the planning system to increase certainty reduce complexity and costs to enhance the speed and quality of local authority decision making and to improve the appeals system to reduce delays recommendations include the introduction of a new system for dealing with major infrastructure projects based around national statements of strategic objectives and with a new independent planning commission to determine applications the promotion of a positive planning culture within the plan led system so that applications should be approved unless there is good reason to believe that the environmental social or economic costs will exceed respective benefits encouraging planning bodies to review their green belt boundaries to promote sustainable new development beyond towns and cities and removal of the need for minor commercial developments that have little wider impact to require planning permission since the turn of the 21st century there has been a greater pace of reform to planning in britain than at any other time as a public sector activity planning has also been impacted heavily by the wider changes in the way we are governed yet whilst such reform has been extensively commented upon within academia few have empirically explored how these changes are manifesting themselves in planning practice this new book aims to understand how both specific planning and broader public sector reforms have been experienced and understood by chartered town planners working in local authorities across great britain after setting out the reform context successive chapters then map responses across the profession to the implementation of spatial planning to targets to public participation and to the idea of a customer focused planning and to attempts to change the culture of the planning each chapter outlines the reaction by the profession to reforms promoted by successive central and devolved governments over the last decade before considering the broader issues of what this tells us about how modernisation is rolled out by frontline public servants this accessible book fills a gap in the market and makes ideal reading for students and researchers interested in the uk planning system
