Bal Ganesha and Bal Hanuman are the two most interesting characters of Indian mythology. They are brave, courageous, and quick-witted, and their comic timing is superb. Their unusual appearance, hilarious activities, loyalty, love, respect, care, sincerity, and unwavering attention to their parents and elders make them more lovable and endearing despite their divine powers and charm. They play naughty pranks on their friends and fellow beings, but all this reflects their charm, wisdom, and intellect. At this tender age, they are concerned about the welfare of all, be it our little ones as well as grown-up readers. We will find all the stories interesting and enjoyable.

A poor little girl is rewarded with lovely gifts when she feeds a hungry bird. All the rice she has, what happens when the girl's greedy, nosy neighbour hears the story and tries to get better gifts for herself? Why did the once sweet sea water turn salty? How did the learned teacher forget his lessons, only to be aided by the school cook? And how did the king hide his horrible donkey ears from the people of his kingdom? For answers to all this and more, delve right into another fabulous collection of stories by Sudha Murty.
