utilizing resources from martin luther and the lutheran tradition this study offers an understanding of the gospel as promise as key to addressing the challenge of relating the missio dei to a generous constructive approach toward the religious other in its construction of a lutheran missiology it retrieves and reappropriates four resources from the lutheran tradition the gospel as promise the law gospel distinction a theology of grace as promise of mercy fulfilled and a theology of the cross utilizing the hiddenness of god the law of god as accusing yet webbing humanity to its creator the gospel as the comforting promise of mercy and the hiddenness of god as mystifying form the overarching framework within which the lutheran missiology presented here seeks to engage the religious other by dialectically relating gospel proclamation and dialogue such a view of mission shaped by promise offers the paradox of god being both revealed and hidden in the cross as a distinctive contribution to an interreligious dialogue centered on the ambiguity and hiddenness of god the critique of jacques dupuis sj by the vatican s congregation for the doctrine of the faith at the direction of joseph ratzinger was met by almost universal dismay by christian theologians and participants in interfaith dialogue throughout the world this book is comprised of both responses by father dupuis to the vatican s criticisms which he was forbidden to publish during his lifetime and introductory and background material by his friend and editor bill burrows who draws on their many conversations to draw out the deeper implications of dupuis work and the background to the vatican investigations and criticisms in addition to laying bare procedural problems in the cdf s process dupuis shows that both the vatican document dominus iesus and the notification about problems in his work rest on dangerous misunderstandings of scripture and church teaching that reverse the gains in interfaith understanding and ecumenism that have occurred over the past fifty years
