i am increasingly convinced that the decisive question that demands an answer from us is not so much how believers experience the liturgy but whether believers live from the liturgy they celebrate with these few words goffredo boselli captures the essence of this present work believers can celebrate the liturgy throughout their lifetimes without ever really drawing their lives from it and this is true of all believers laity clergy or monastics more than a century after the start of the liturgical movement and half a century after the start of the postconciliar liturgical reform we must ask the difficult question of whether the liturgy has or has not become the source of the spiritual life of believers for only by living from the liturgy can they receive the nourishment necessary to maintain a life of faith in today s world in the spiritual meaning of the liturgy goffredo boselli one of europe s foremost liturgical theologians offers an accessible and important guide for both scholars and interested laypeople to understand the meaning that permeates the liturgy and its implications for daily living readers will find here a resource to help understand the liturgy more fully interiorize it more effectively and live it more authentically

this major volume is a collection of the writings of joseph ratzinger pope emeritus benedict xvi on the theology of the liturgy of the church a subject of preeminence to him as a theologian professor and spiritual writer it brings together all his writings on the subject short and long giving his views on liturgical matters and questions over many years and from various perspectives he chose to have his writings on the liturgy for the first volume published of his collected works though listed as vol 11 because as he says in the introduction the liturgy of the church has been for me since my childhood the central reality of my life and it became the center of my theological efforts i chose fundamental theology as my field because i wanted first and foremost to examine thoroughly the question why do we believe but also included from the beginning in this question was the other question of the right response to god and thus the question of the liturgy by starting with the theme of liturgy in this volume ratzinger wants to highlight god s primacy the absolute precedence of the theme of god beginning with a focus on the liturgy he said tells us that god is first he quotes from the rule of st benedict nothing is to be preferred to the liturgy as a way of ordering priorities for the life of the church and of every individual he says that the fundamental question of the man who begins to understand himself correctly is how must i encounter god thus learning the right way of worshipping is the gift par excellence that is given to us by the faith the essential purpose of his writings on the liturgy is to place the liturgy in its larger context which he presents in three concentric circles first the intrinsic interrelationship of old and new testament without the connection to the old testament heritage the christian liturgy is incomprehensible the second circle is the relationship to the religions of the world the third circle is the cosmic character of the liturgy which is more than the coming together of a circle of people the liturgy is celebrated in the expanse of the cosmos encompassing creation and history at the same time because the sacred liturgy is truly the font from which all the church s power flows we must do everything we can to put the sacred liturgy back at the very heart of the relationship between god and man i ask you to continue to work towards achieving the liturgical aims of the second vatican council and to work to continue the liturgical renewal promoted by pope benedict xvi especially through the post synodal apostolic exhortation sacramentum caritatis and the motu proprio summorum pontificum i ask you to be wise like the householder who knows when to bring out of his treasure things both new and old see mtt 13 52 so that the sacred liturgy as it is celebrated and lived today may lose nothing of the estimable riches of the church s liturgical tradition whilst always being open to legitimate development these words of robert cardinal sarah prefect of the congregation for divine worship underline the liturgy s fundamental role in every aspect of the life and mission of the church liturgy in the twenty first century makes available the different perspectives on this from leading figures such as raymond leo cardinal burke archbishop salvatore cordileone abbot philip anderson father thomas kocik dom alcuin reid and dr lauren pristis considering questions of liturgical catechetics music preaching how young
