abstract in this study i propose a strong and innovative model of teaching that centers on the student and i report on the efficacy of this model using quantitative research procedures this model of teaching is systematized in the marhaba curriculum a method of teaching first year high school arabic that i designed tested and evaluated the marhaba curriculum is founded on best practices and is a natural outgrowth of contemporary education theories including non linear curriculum design and multiple modality teaching materials that take into consideration students diverse learning styles analysis of data indicates that use of the marhaba curriculum positively influences student proficiency in arabic in particular students become proficient regardless of a student s gender grade socioeconomic status or parent educational background also student proficiency is not dependent on a student s attitude to learning or engagement in class or a student s attitude toward the curriculum in this special edited volume scholars with diverse backgrounds and conceptual frameworks explore how economic political social and ideological forces impact on school curricula over time and place in providing regional and global perspectives on curricular policies practices and reforms the authors move beyond the conventional notion that school contents reflect principally national priorities and subject based interests school leadership internships are the bridge between classroom teachers and first time leadership positions research shows that quality internships are equally as important as the graduate programs themselves in establishing leadership practices that improve teaching learning and school conditions this book was written as a stand alone graduate textbook and serves as a guide and support for creating and managing quality school leader internship programs it provides step by step guidance for interns their supervisors and their faculty on how to initiate an internship and evaluate interns work in this updated third edition the authors have aligned the internship to the revised isllc standards making this book critical for the over 500 leadership preparation programs nationwide and the thousands of school districts that support leadership candidates
