this book is a history of the asian development bank adb a multilateral development bank established 50 years ago to serve asia and the pacific focusing on the region's economic development the evolution of the international development agenda and the story of adb itself this book raises several key questions what are the outstanding features of regional development to which adb had to respond how has the bank grown and evolved in changing circumstances how did adb's successive leaders promote reforms while preserving continuity with the efforts of their predecessors adb has played an important role in the transformation of asia and the pacific over the past 50 years as adb continues to evolve and adapt to the region's changing development landscape the experiences highlighted in this book can provide valuable insight on how best to serve asia and the pacific in the future hong kong was a key battlefield in asia's cultural cold war after 1948 1949 an influx of filmmakers writers and intellectuals from mainland china transformed british hong kong into a hub for mass entertainment and popular publications while there was no organized movement for independence largely because of its location directly next to mao's china hong kong was central in the cultural contest between communist china nationalist taiwan and the united states hong kong media and asia's cold war discusses how china taiwan and the u s fought to mobilize hong kong cinema and print media to sway ethnic chinese in southeast asia and across the world central to this propaganda and psychological warfare was the emigre media industry this period was the golden age of mandarin cinema and popular culture throughout the 1967 riots and the 1970s the emergence of a new local born generation challenged and reshaped the cold war networks of émigré cultural production contributing to the gradual decline of hong kong's cultural cold war through untapped archival materials contemporary sources and numerous interviews with filmmakers magazine editors and student activists po shek fu explores how global conflicts were localized and intertwined with myriad local historical experiences and cultural formation in recent years it has become apparent that south south economic relations are increasing and will continue to do so there will be more trade agreements and more trade more economic alliances and more political alliances with economic goals more investment flows and an increasing acknowledgement that the global south has more to offer than it has in the past these new economics relations have great potential both for harm and for good in the absence of directed policies and intentional actors imbalances of power and growing gaps in development will persist with the right policies in place however these relationships could forge a new global order with greater economic and political equality covering a wide range of topics including regional trade integration in africa the environmental impact of increased south south trade the changing patterns of south south investment and the effect of conflict on trade in south asia this ground breaking volume presents an analysis of south south economic relations and how they might impact and be impacted by the rest of the world in today s highly competitive market many destinations from individual resorts to countries are adopting branding techniques similar to those used by coca cola nike and sony in an effort to differentiate their identities and to emphasize the uniqueness of their product by focusing on a range of global case studies destination branding demonstrates that the adoption of a highly targeted consumer research based multi agency mood branding initiative leads to success every time
