six key scholars present a feminist critique of the theory of human rights the title of this volume womens voices womens rights might be taken innocently to indicate its contents a set of lectures given by women on the rights of women on the failure to achieve those rights and on the reasons and remedies for those failures however it also implies that womens rights are not simply the extension to all members of the community of the agreed upon rights of men is to speak in a woman's voice to speak in a different voice each lecture explores the values of western societies and the sources of the oppression of women within them while many also provide a political contribution to the argument over the international context in which womens status seems to be under constant threat the lectures rest on a shared commitment to the dignity humanity and unique individuality of each human person a tenet that underpins the human rights movement provides the moral impetus for feminism and indeed is the motivating force behind amnesty international's campaigning on behalf of political prisoners world wide ultimately the contributors show us that to speak from the perspective of women to adopt a woman's voice is to enrich our understanding of the rights of all
