prominent sociologist dorothy smith outlines a method of inquiry that uses everyday experience as a lens to examine social relations and social institutions concerned with articulating an inclusive sociology that goes beyond looking at a particular group of people from the detached viewpoint of the researcher this is a method of inquiry for people incorporating the expert s research and language into everyday experience to examine social relations and institutions the book begins by examining the foundations of institutional ethnography in women s movements differentiating it from other related sociologies the second part offers an ontology of the social and the third illustrates this ontology through an array of institutional ethnography examples this will be a foundational text for classes in sociology ethnography and women s studies the visionary queen affirms marguerite de navarre s status not only as a political figure author or proponent of nonschismatic reform but also as a visionary in her life and writings the queen of navarre dissected the injustices that her society and its institutions perpetuated against women we also see evidence that she used her literary texts especially the heptaméron as an exploratory space in which to generate a creative vision for institutional reform the heptaméron s approach to reform emerges from statistical analysis of the text s seventy two tales which reveals new insights into trends within the work including the different categories of wrongdoing by male institutional representatives from the church and aristocracy as well as the varying responses to injustice that characters in the tales employ as they pursue reform throughout its chapters the visionary queen foregrounds the trope of the labyrinth a potent symbol in early modern europe that encapsulated both the fallen world and redemption two themes that underlie marguerite s project of reform
